Are You Attending Services Less?

Sadly, there are some brethren who are very sporadic when it comes to attending worship services. However, when they are approached about their irregular or random attendance they are very quick to give a variety of excuses for their sporadic attendance. So, perhaps those brethren who are attending services less need to...

Be Reminded of The Purpose For Attending Worship Services.

You see, the Scriptures teach that Christians are to come together upon the first day of the week (Acts 20:7; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2). When Christians come together upon the first day of the week to worship God, we must do so in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We are to sing songs of praise to God (Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16), we are to pray (Acts 2:42), we are to teach the doctrine of Christ (Galatians 1:6-9; 2 John 9), we are to take the Lord's Supper in remembrance of the Lord's death (1 Corinthians 11:23-26), and we are to cheerfully give back a portion of our means as we have been prospered by God (1 Corinthians 16:1-2; 2 Corinthians 9:7). Knowing this, strive to be one who is regular in attending worship services, be one who obeys the commands given by God (Matthew 7:21; Revelation 22:14), and be one who stirs up love and good works (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Better Prepare Self For Worship Services.

It appears that some brethren are not making the proper preparations needed to regularly attend worship services. For instance, some may be staying up or out way too late on Saturday evening, which in return, causes them not to attend worship services on Sunday, because they claim to be too tired. However, do you really think that the excuse of being too tired to attend worship service is acceptable to God? Think about that! You see, instead of making excuses for missing worship services, we need to be a people who take the Ezra approach, and we need to likewise prepare our heart's to seek the law of the Lord and to do it (Ezra 7:10). So, with that thought in mind, strive to make the proper preparations needed to regularly attend worship services, and always seek to serve the Lord with gladness (Psalm 100:2).

Be More Spiritually Minded.

Sadly, some of our brethren are regularly missing worship services because they do not have their priorities straight. For instance, some are choosing to engage in leisure activities on Sunday's, or some are constantly volunteering to work on Sunday's so they can receive double time pay, rather than choosing to worship and obey God. However, my beloved brethren, we must always put God first in our lives (Matthew 6:33). We must not be conformed to this world (Romans 12:2), and we need to be a people who are setting our minds on the things above rather than on the things on the earth (Colossians 3:2). Therefore, let's all strive to be more spiritually minded, and let's store up for ourselves treasure in heaven rather than on earth (Matthew 6:19-21).

Examine Thyself As To Whether You Are In The Faith.

In 2 Corinthians 13:5, the apostle Paul instructed the saints in Corinth to, "Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves." He then goes onto say, "Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?-unless indeed you are disqualified.” Brethren, we all need to make, and take sometime to examine ourselves as to whether we are truly in the faith, and those who are known to frequently miss worship services, they need to be doing some serious self-examining, and they need to be honest with themselves to see if they really do stand the test. For, the fact of the matter is, self, and a desire to please self, instead of the Lord our God, can often be one’s greatest problem.

Posses A Greater Desire For Heaven.

Last, but certainly not least, maybe those who are attending services less need to posses a greater desire for heaven. You see, many will often say “I want to go to heaven,” but sadly, too often, their actions do not speak louder than their words. Therefore, do not just say you want to go to heaven, but rather be like God’s faithful people of old, and act like it (Hebrews 11:13-16). So, now I ask, how about you? Is pressing toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus the one thing that you do (Philippians 3:13-14)? If not, why not?

Brethren, it is understandable that there are, and will be certain circumstances that will come along that may prevent you from attending services. Along that line, I often have heard a well respected gospel preacher of over 60 years say, “do not be concerned about those who would be here if they could be, but rather be concerned about those who could be here, but choose not to be.” Now, think about that statement. How true, right? Knowing that, may each and everyone of us always take advantage of every opportunity that we have to come together to worship our One, True, Living God, and instead of attending services less, let’s all make it a priority to attend services more!
